

Dr. Andrew Wyant

Currently serving as a physician and professor of medicine and physiology at a local major university

Also serving as an ordained pastor to the Grace Gospel Church of Sharpsburg, Kentucky.

Spent 20+ years as:

- an OB-GYN doctor,
- emergency room doctor, and
- a professor.

In his younger years, Dr. Wyant played bass guitar, lead guitar and sang for the heavy metal bands, "Miriah" & "Shirley Bizarre". Later he played in a popular Rock Band with a group of fellow doctors in "Bad Medicine"- this band still gigs in Indiana

Dr. Wyant has the following degrees:

- BS in Chemistry
- M.D. in Medicine
- M.Div. in Theology, divinity & medical ethics

Author: Textbook- Medical Imaging- essentials for physicians, published by Wiley-Blackwell 2013

Currently writing a medical textbook for FA Davis- 2015

- Published: multiple peer-reviewed journal articles in medicine & health
- Health-Matters Radio Show
- Lived as an agnostic/atheist until age 39
- Conversion to Christianity: after being convinced by a 3 year academic search- 'concluded, there must be a God'- life was radically changed
- Great-great Grandfather: in Ripley's' Believe it or not for being left for dead in Civil War- found alive in morgue and a Silver dollar placed in his head: went on to have 6 children: one of which was my great-grandfather, Wihelm Weyandt: changed name to Wyant
- Andy has been married to the beautiful Krystal Kama for 9 years.
- Both Andy and Krystal are originally from Vincennes, Indiana- where both sets of parents still live
- They have 3 children together
- Loves:
  - MLB- Boston Red Sox, Cincinnati Reds: College Basketball, reading, family time, hiking in New England, sports cars, music, theology/philosophy geek (just a geek in general)
- Loves: preaching & serving the local church, writing, spending time with his beautiful wife
- Andy is a medical doctor, a professor of clinical science, and a trained theologian- with all that school he is indebted to the Federal government but must have something to say

Douglas G. Thorpe

- Mr. Thorpe has spent 30 years in the fields of mechanical, electrical, chemical, & general engineering.
- Most of his career has been in the aerospace & NASA, department of defense, and energy recovery industries.

- Mr. Thorpe holds many patents for internal combustion engines, electric motors, concrete building blocks, and others.
- Mr. Thorpe has published many technical papers in the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics organization (AIAA).
- Please find and read Mr. Thorpe's technical papers, which can be found at the Space Propulsion Synergy Team website.
- Please find and read Mr. Thorpe's political papers, which can be found at theUSAparty.com website.
- Loves:
  - Solving engineering problems, traveling (has been to all 48 continental states), military history, visiting the Red River Gorge and Great Smoky Mtn, family,
- Doug has attended a Baptist Church since birth on most Sundays, except for a few years right after college.
- Doug has been married to the lovely Jenny Childers for 23 years and they have 2 sons.
- Doug is originally from Irvine, KY, and Jenny is from Augusta, GA.
- Some things you might want to know about Doug:
  - One of Doug's ancestors was one of the first settlers to the new world, Capt. John "Neptune" Bush landed in 1611 in Jamestown.
  - Some of Doug's ancestors were the first settlers of Kentucky in what was known as the "Traveling Bush Baptist Church" and they settled in areas from Winchester to Torrent.
  - Doug's 4G-Grandmother, Susan Robinson, was an Indian maiden rescued from the Cherokee Trail of Tears around 1838.
- Doug spent 25 years in the Boy Scouts of America and obtained the rank of Eagle Scout.
- In the past, Doug has been a sky diver, scuba diver, and an avid spelunker.